Presidents' Report Sara & Becky

Principal's Message Chris Fuhriman, Ruth Ann Snow

- Summer book program will continue this year! Will try to include Battle of the Books selections, as well as Chinese and Spanish options. $6000 budget. Will kick-off after spring break. One book per student per week through July.

McKay Jensen

- New school sale closed last week. $110 million in the bank with three years to spend it. 2.5% interest rate. Dirt will begin to move within the next month and Locust Lane will start to get busy. Legislature is interested in full-day kindergarten- something to consider in planning school's size. Teacher retention and paraprofessional salaries are at top of board's mind.

Discussion Items

- Nominating committee Emily
Andrea Pace and Cheryl Bikman made motion to vote on nominations for 2022-23 PAWS Board. Vote was unanimous.
- Teacher Appreciation Week Cheryl & Ashley
Will serve lunch on Wednesday and have organized treats for each day.
- Expressions Art Amber
Submissions due next Monday. Some already in. Need judges. Awards on Wednesday.
- Junior Achievement Emilie
How did training go?
Two-thirds came to training. Packets were given out. There are three classes without volunteers still. Would like to see if tracked, if lessons are taught.
- Talent Show Joanna & Sarah

Next year do a hybrid. When uploading videos, change share settings. Gmail account: wasatchtalentshow@gmail.com can carry from year to year.

- STEM Night Pam & Shannon
End of next week email will be sent by Mrs. Isom- bingo activity.
- Art Show Pam & Shannon
Mr. Scribner on top of it. Friday April 29 was to be set up but it is a makeup snow day so there will likely be no school. Set up on April 28th instead. Figure out how many volunteers needed for set up. Take-down on the 4th.
- Track Meet Kristina & Andrea
Decide if more track or field. Roadrunner Meet an option for students who are serious about running and breaking records.
- Field Day Kristin & Chenae
- Fall Festival Heather
Still need co-chair. September 30? More delegating/sub-committees so it's not such a burden on one person. Downsize food court– food trucks? Y-Serve, missionaries, and high schoolers all great to use as helpers.
- Writers Olympics
Are currently staggered by grade. Should they all be done at the same time next year?
